

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 43 CFR 10.10 (a)(3), of the intent to repatriate cultural items in the possession of the Museum of the City of New York, New York, NY which meet the definition of "unassociated funerary object" under Section 2 of the Act.

The 19 cultural items consist of two flushloop-variety, medium sized bells with broken attachment loops, a narrow hoe with a circular eye, a hook, a clay tobacco pipe, a knife blade, a spoon, a brass kettle (bottom missing) with rolled rim and riveted ears, three chain links (linked), a finger ring, five cylindrical blue glass trade beads, and five glass star trade beads.

In 1965, these cultural items were acquired by the Museum of the City of New York from the Heye Museum of the American Indian. These items were acquired earlier by the Heye Museum of the American Indian as part of the Carr collection from the Burr's Hill burial site in Warren, RI.

Burr's Hill is believed to be located on the southern border of Sowams, a Wampanoag village. Sowams is identified in historical documents of the 16th and 17th centuries as a Wampanoag village, and was ceded to the English in 1653 by Massasoit and his eldest son Wamsutta (Alexander). Based on the condition and type, these cultural items have been dated to the contact period (1500-1690 A.D.).

Consultation evidence provided by representatives of the Wampanoag Repatriation Confederation representing the Gay Head Wampanoag Tribe of Massachusetts and the non-Federally recognized Indian groups the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe, the Assonet Band of the Wampanoag regarding other burials from Burr's Hill indicate consistent manner of interment of these cultural items with other known Wampanoag burials of the period.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the Museum of the City of New York have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(2)(ii), these 19 cultural items are reasonably believed to have been placed with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony and are believed, by a preponderance of the evidence, to have been removed from a specific burial site of an Native American individual. Officials of the Museum of the City of New York have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these items and the Wampanoag Repatriation Confederation representing the Gay Head Wampanoag Tribe of Massachusetts and the non-Federally recognized Indian groups the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe, the Assonet Band of the Wampanoag.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Wampanoag Repatriation Confederation representing the Gay Head Wampanoag Tribe of Massachusetts and the non-Federally recognized Indian groups the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe, the Assonet Band of the Wampanoag, and the Narragansett Indian Tribe of Rhode Island. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these objects should contact Wendy Rogers, Museum of the City of New York, 1220 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10029; telephone: (212) 534-1672, ext. 221 before January 3, 2000. Repatriation of these objects to the Wampanoag Repatriation Confederation on behalf of the Gay Head Wampanoag Tribe of Massachusetts and the non-Federally recognized Indian groups the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe, the Assonet Band of the Wampanoag may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

Notice of Inventory Completion for Native American Human Remains in the Possession of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Philadelphia, PA

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice.

Notice is hereby given in accordance with provisions of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA), 43 CFR 10.9, of the completion of an inventory of human remains in the possession of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Philadelphia, PA.

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology professional staff in consultation with representatives of the Sac and Fox Nation, Oklahoma; the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa; the Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri in Kansas and Nebraska; the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; the Kickapoo Tribe of Indians of the Kickapoo Reservation in Kansas, and the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, Oklahoma. The Forest County Potawatomi Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians, Wisconsin; Huron Potawatomi, Inc., Michigan; the Pokagan Band of Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Prairie Band of Potawatomi Indians, Kansas; the Hannahville Indian Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas; and the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma were invited to consult, but did not participate.

At an unknown date, human remains representing one individual were removed from an unknown location by person(s) unknown. Prior to 1915, these human remains were received by the University of Pennsylvania Museum, transferred to the Wistar Institute, Philadelphia, PA in 1915, and transferred back to the University of Pennsylvania Museum in 1961. No known individual was identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

Accession information from the Wistar Institute identifies this individual as "Native American shot in the Black Hawk War, 1905." No further documentation is present to identify the recovery location, the collector, or the cultural affiliation of this individual. While many Sac and Fox people were killed during the Black Hawk War, groups of Potawatomi, Winnebago, and Kickapoo allied themselves with the Sac and Fox during this four-month conflict. No evidence exists to the contrary of the Wistar Institute's accession information.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the University of Pennsylvania Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains listed above represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry. Officials of the University of Pennsylvania Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these Native American human remains and the Sac and Fox Nation, Oklahoma; the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa; the Sac and Fox Nation in Kansas and Nebraska; the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; the Kickapoo Tribe of Indians of the Kickapoo Reservation in Kansas, the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, Oklahoma; the Forest County Potawatomi Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians, Wisconsin; Huron Potawatomi, Inc., Michigan; the Pokagan Band of Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Prairie Band of Potawatomi Indians, Kansas; the Hannahville Indian Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas; and the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Sac and Fox Nation, Oklahoma; the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa; the Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri in Kansas and Nebraska; the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; the Kickapoo Tribe of Indians of the Kickapoo Reservation in Kansas, the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, Oklahoma; the Forest County Potawatomi Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians, Wisconsin; Huron Potawatomi, Inc., Michigan; the Pokagan Band of Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Prairie Band of Potawatomi Indians, Kansas; the Hannahville Indian Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas; the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma, and the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these human remains should contact Dr. Jeremy Sabloff, the Williams Director, University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, 33rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19104-6324; telephone: (215) 898-4051, fax (215) 898-0657, before January 3, 2000. Repatriation of the human remains to the Sac and Fox Nation, Oklahoma; the Sac and Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa; the Sac and Fox Nation in Kansas and Nebraska; the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska; the Kickapoo Tribe of Indians of the Kickapoo Reservation in Kansas, the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, Oklahoma; the Forest County Potawatomi Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians, Wisconsin; Huron Potawatomi, Inc., Michigan; the Pokagan Band of Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Prairie Band of Potawatomi Indians, Kansas; the Hannahville Indian Community of Wisconsin Potawatomi Indians of Michigan; the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas; and the Kickapoo Tribe of Oklahoma may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.
