

Photography / Illustration Permission Form

The Penn Museum welcomes and encourages researchers to use its collections. Please complete this form to request permission to photograph and/or illustrate objects in the Museum's collection.

By completing this form, you are assigning copyright for these photographs and illustrations to the Penn Museum unless otherwise specified. These photographs and illustrations may only be used for research purposes (including public presentations) and are not eligible for further reproduction, distribution, exhibition, or publication. To obtain publication-quality photographs and illustrations of Museum objects and the permission to publish photographs and illustrations, please contact the Museum Archives (photos@pennmuseum.org).

By completing this form, you also agree to provide a copy of your photographs and illustrations to the Penn Museum before the end of your research visit.
